DEAR PARTICIPANT!

Welcome to the International Universal Exhibition-Fair "Kids Expo: everything for children," which will take place on August 19-22, 2024, in Ashgabat, Turkmenistan.

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION:

"Kids Expo: everything for children" is a platform where companies operating in the field of childcare services can showcase their innovative products and services, enriching the market with new opportunities. "Kids Expo" not only provides a platform for enterprises but also serves as an open window to the Turkmenistan market. The exhibition's exposition aims to attract the attention of international partners, investors, and representatives of the children's industry from around the world.

GENERAL VISA INFORMATION

All foreign participants visiting Turkmenistan must obtain a visa before or upon arrival to the country. There are three steps to getting a visa to Turkmenistan.

STEP 1

Participant Agreement To attend the Exhibition-Fair, please sign the Agreement with Turkmen Expo (TE) team and pay the accompanying fees. Then, TE will:

- ▶ Assist you in gathering all necessary documents for a letter of invitation (LOI);
- ▶ Apply for an LOI with the State Migration Service of Turkmenistan;
- ▶ Send you an issued LOI and assist you with airplane tickets and hotel bookings.

STEP 2. Letter of invitation (LOI)

To get the LOI, you should send the following documents to TE team:

- ▶ Complete Application form which will be sent to you in PDF format;
- ▶ A quality color scan copy of Your passport with a minimum of 2 vacant pages for a visa, which is valid for no fewer than 6 months until the date of your arrival;
- ▶ A quality 5x6 photo made within no earlier than 6 months;
- ▶ A confirmation of the hotel reservation, which is provided by TE following the Participant Agreement.

Please note that it takes 10 to 14 days for the Department of the State Migration Service of Turkmenistan to issue a letter of invitation.

STEP 3. Turkmenistan visa

After sending the letter of invitation, you have two options for obtaining a visa to Turkmenistan:

- ▶ Contact the Embassy of Turkmenistan in your country or region with the letter of invitation to obtain a visa to Turkmenistan. Please note that it may take 3 to 5 working days to process and obtain a visa at the Embassy of Turkmenistan in your country.
- ▶ Provide a printed copy of your letter of invitation and passport to the migration officer (at the airport or at the land border checkpoint, upon arrival in Turkmenistan).

We remind you that TurkmenExpo can only assist you in obtaining a letter of invitation and visa to Turkmenistan. TurkmenExpo is not responsible in case of refusal in obtaining the letter of invitation and visa. The issuance of your letter of invitation is regulated by the legislation of the State Migration Service of Turkmenistan. In order to avoid possible delays and to allow time for re-application, we kindly ask you to send your application for issuance of documents as early as possible in accordance with the instructions of this document.

*Please note that you will not be charged for the issuance of a visa invitation letter. TurkmenExpo will assist in the procurement of visa support for all delegates. If you have any questions, please contact:

ASHGABAT - THE CAPITAL CITY OF TURKMENISTAN

Ashgabat, the capital city of Turkmenistan, is a fascinating metropolis that combines striking architecture, rich history, and a unique cultural experience. Known as the "City of White Marble," Ashgabat is renowned for its impressive display of grandiose white marble buildings that dominate its skyline.

The city's architectural style is distinctive and showcases a blend of traditional Turkmen design elements with modern influences. The numerous white marble structures, adorned with intricate patterns and decorative motifs, create a visually stunning environment.

The Turkmenistan Independence Monument, an iconic symbol of the country's sovereignty, stands proudly in the heart of Ashgabat, serving as a testament to its proud heritage.

One of the most captivating structures in Ashgabat is the Alem Cultural and Entertainment Center. This futuristic building, resembling a giant tripod, houses a variety of attractions, including an observation deck providing panoramic views of the city. The Alem Center is an architectural marvel that reflects Turkmenistan's aspirations for progress and innovation.

Ashgabat is not only a city of remarkable buildings but also boasts numerous well-maintained parks and gardens. The Arch of Neutrality, a towering monument topped by a golden statue of Turkmenistan's first president, is surrounded by beautiful parkland. This serene oasis offers locals and visitors a peaceful retreat amidst the bustling urban environment.

Beyond its architectural wonders, Ashgabat offers a vibrant and lively atmosphere. The city's bustling bazaars and markets are filled with colorful stalls selling a wide array of goods, including traditional crafts, textiles, and delicious local delicacies. Visitors can immerse themselves in the sights, sounds, and aromas of Ashgabat's bustling marketplaces, engaging in the lively energy of everyday life.

In summary, Ashgabat stands as a city of extraordinary beauty and cultural significance. Its distinctive white marble architecture, impressive monuments, and well-preserved parks create a visually stunning landscape. Exploring Ashgabat offers a glimpse into Turkmenistan's rich history, vibrant traditions, and its vision for a modern future. Whether admiring the architectural masterpieces or experiencing the local culture, Ashgabat promises a captivating and memorable journey for all who visit.
